

Adjunct Faculty: Applied French Horn

Northern Kentucky University

Posted Date: February 26, 2024

Northern Kentucky University invites applications for a part-time (adjunct) faculty position in Applied French Horn starting August 19, 2024.

Position Description: The successful candidate will lead the Applied French Horn studio and participate in other brass area activities. Other teaching responsibilities may be assigned dependent upon qualifications of the candidate and needs of the department.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities:

- Teach weekly Applied French Horn lessons to undergraduate music majors and non-majors
- Serve as an adjudicator for brass juries each semester
- Participate in Brass Audition Days
- Participate in recruitment activities
- Additional opportunities to perform as part of the Faculty Brass Trio

Required Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Music
- Distinguished record of professional performing activity
- Demonstrated record of teaching experience

Preferred Qualifications:

- Doctorate in Music or A.B.D.
- Successful experience teaching at the college level
- Proven ability to recruit and maintain a high-quality applied studio
- Strong interpersonal skills

Salary: varies depending on the number of students and courses assigned.

Application Materials:

- Cover Letter addressing the position description and qualifications
- Curriculum Vitae
- List of three to five references
- Optional – links to recent performance recordings (from the last five years)

Please send all materials to:

Dr. Louis Setzer, Brass Area Coordinator

SETZERL1@nku.edu

For best consideration send all materials by: March 11, 2024.